Anat Physio Honors

Mrs. Eva Rothal

Course #2000360

eva.rothal@browardschools.com

(754) 323-0350 ext. 3127

Course Description: While the content focus of this course is consistent with the Anatomy and Physiology course, students will explore these concepts in greater depth. In general, the academic pace and rigor will be greatly increased for honors level course work. Laboratory investigations that include the use of scientific inquiry, research, measurement, problem solving, laboratory apparatus and technologies, experimental procedures, and safety procedures are an integral part of this course.

Attendance:

- Work assigned on the absent day must be turned in two days after returning to school
- An administrative referral will be created for every 5 excused AND/OR unexcused absences (unless proper documentation is turned in to student affairs/ guidance)

Tardies: a teacher should not keep any of my students. Three tardies will result in a lunch detention. A day before, the you and your parent/guardian will be notified when to prepare a lunch from home and eat in room 205.

Grading Policy

- Test: 50%
- Quiz: 20%
- Lab/Project: 20%
- CW/HW 10%

Labs/Dissections- this year, we will be involved in various labs as well as four animal dissections throughout the year: fetal pig, sheep eye, brain and heart. The dates for dissections will be given out ahead of time to plan being present as there are limited numbers of specimens to dissect.

Make Up Policy

- Quiz or test will be made up 2 days after returning to school. Lab makeups will be a quiz about the concept of the lab. Students will have up to 5 days to make up this grade. It is highly encouraged for students to be present on quiz, lab and/or test date.

Gradebook: check regularly to assure proper points are earned. Any grade correction must be no later than seven days of the entry date. Follow procedure at end of class lecture/activity:

- Print student report
- High-light assignment in question
- Ask for student file and staple
- Turn in bin
